A Prayer for Ecommerce Workers

God of all peoples. You have communicated to people all over the world, leading them to grace through the technology of their day.
Your words have been chiseled, impressed, scripted, printed, and broadcast.
You connect us, by your Word and Spirit.
As we live and trade in an ever-connected world, connect us first to you.
Teach us to love, even those whose faces we cannot see.
Help us to honor all workers, even as we consider our profit margins.
May our global visibility point to the one who SO loves the world.
Forgive us our oversights, and lead us to gracious generosity. Amen.
