Short Prayer to the God Who is With Us

Father,
You have placed my feet on stable land,
And made my hands to work this ground.

May my heart learn to trust You in the process—
That I never rush beyond the pace You set before me,
That I never quench the Spirit's still small voice within me,
That I never wish the journey's end before I've seen You:

With me,
Near me,
In me,
Before me,
Around me,
And always ever only for my good.
Amen

Written for the Worship for Workers Project of Fuller Seminary by Peter Assad from poems of grace