A Collect Prayer

Almighty and ever-present God, who dwells in the unlikely places of sandwich-making and changing tables;

Convert the humble acts of this day into signposts of your coming Kingdom, and recast the routines of keeping home into beautiful spaces where your Kingdom grows roots;

So that freed from the burden of great things, our hearts can rest in the slow pleasures of your grace;
Through the good work of Jesus, the Son, our Lord.

Written for the Worship for Workers Project of Fuller Seminary by Phil Reinders from Toronto, Ontario (https://seekinggodsface.org/)